

Recently Qualified Teacher - Development Programme

The Recently Qualified Teacher (RQT) Programme has been developed in response to demand from many of our partner schools following discussions about the needs of their new teachers.

The RQT Development programme is designed to follow on from the NQT programme led by Tykes TSA and is recommended as a next step for teachers in the early stages of their career and offers additional support after their NQT induction year.

It has been designed to be –

- Practical, every session will include observations and discussions with an experienced practitioner.
- Reflective, with deeper thinking about the “how’s” and “why’s” of teaching.
- Relevant, focussing on participants’ own areas of development
- Challenging, with the aim to moving practice on.
- Thought-provoking, drawing on current educational research and issues.

There will be a total of 5 full day sessions led by experienced and outstanding practitioners.

Sessions include –

Leading a Subject

Developing Teaching and Learning

Observation, Feedback and Reflection

Knowing Yourself as a Leader

Developing Assessment for Learning

Costs – The cost per participant will be £350 or individual sessions can be procured at a cost of £85 per day
